ABOUT SMRJ

Seth M.R. Jaipuria School, Lucknow has been established in memory of the Late Seth Mangatu Ram Jaipuria, a great nationalist and doyen of the Textile Industry, who was conferred 'Padma Bhushan' by the President of India in 1971 in recognition of his services to the society.

The present patron of the school are Shri Sharad Jaipuria and Smt. Anjali Jaipuria. The school has a vision of a new world in which relationships are governed by the spirit of universal fraternity.

The school functions under the guidance and counsel of a galaxy of eminent leaders drawn from the fields of Education, Industry, Science and Technology and under the aegis of the Integral Education Society.

ABOUT SYMPOSIUM

In a span of just a year, Jaipuria Symposium has quickly positioned itself as one of Lucknow's elite debate forums. Designed to move beyond the conventions of the typical school event, Symposium brings together diverse formats that compel participants to think with clarity, articulate with conviction, and engage with ideas in a spirit of depth, discipline, and curiosity.

What distinguishes Jaipuria Symposium is not only the range of its formats, but also the philosophy rooted in competition, collaboration and exchange of ideas that guides it. The aim is not limited to recognising winners, but to ensure that every participant returns home with sharper perspectives, stronger skills, and a deeper understanding of the world around them. In doing so, Jaipuria Symposium stands as more than a competition. It is a celebration of thought, expression, and growth, a platform where achievement is not undervalued, but learning remains the highest takeaway.

The idea of this second edition is to transcend the previous success and create an experience more extraordinary and transformative than ever before.
